

FARM HEDGES & SHELTER BELTS

Hedges are home for birds and insects and great shelter for stock.

They help conserve soil by protecting newly ploughed land from wind erosion. They provide shade from the sun, limiting moisture loss.

Hedges provide shelter for animals from wind, rain and snow.

Hedges have to be trimmed and clippings burnt or mulched.

