

GRASS TO MILK

An average cow produces about 17 litres of milk per day.

To make this, she needs to drink around five buckets (50 litres) of water and eat 85kg of grass. You can see how much this is here.

*Photograph by Allan Gillingham
Te Ara, the Encyclopedia of New Zealand, © Crown Copyright 2006 - 2010 Ministry for Culture and Heritage, New Zealand.*